

Let me start off by asking you a few questions:

- Did you get dressed today and think, “I have a closet full of clothes and nothing to wear?”
- Do want to know what your power color is?
- Could you use some new ideas that won't cost you a dime?

If you answered “yes” to yourself just now, then you are in the right place!

Our speaker traveled all the way from the quaint little fishing village of Lake Dallas Texas to share her uncommon use of colors. She even wrote a book about this unique topic called COLOR NATION: The Power of Color in Business and Leadership. She is a speaker, writer and ballroom dancer. When she's not traveling around the world, her miniature Schnauzer, Victor, makes sure she takes him for 2 walks, by the lake, every day.

Let's give a warm welcome to
